

How to create a Mendeley account

From a computer connected to the IQS network, access the following link: Mendeley IQS has an institutional version (MIE) with additional advantages that you can only access when registering from our network.

Register with your institutional e-mail (@iqs.url.edu) in the option "Create an account".

Hi Roser.

You are part of an institution that has subscribed to Mendeley Institutional Edition. This

We have automatically done this for you to save you the hassle. This has provided you means you are entitled to an upgraded Mendeley account.

The program will show you the advantages of your MIE account and will tell you the next steps to follow.

Bear in mind!!

The MIE version of the account and its benefits will be active as long as the resource is used continuously.

After 12 months of inactivity or access from outside the institution, the account will lose these benefits.

The data is not lost, but to reactivate the benefits you must log in from the IQS network.
